

Geneviève Dell, traducteur

Dr. Genevieve Gonse Dell holds a PhD in History and is a translator in three languages. Early on in her career, she flew on missions as a pilot for various international first-response NGOs in Africa, Asia and the Middle East. She has worked at the International Monetary Fund, prior to becoming a policy analyst at the Texas State Senate. Her translation and interpretation work have led her to projects at the White House, the Office of Independent Counsel, the FBI, the Department of Justice, and the Department of State. Presently she works as a writer and translator in the field of bilingual education and the environment.
